

Bald for Bobby

The owner of Leashes and Leads, Jerry "Big Dog" Fischer, has challenged his family and friends to raise money for his nephew Bobby. Bobby Johnson is the loving husband of Jenna and the devoted father of Laiken (2 ½ years) and Dreleigh (10 months). A role model to his siblings throughout his life, Bobby is the oldest brother of Ryan (22), LeAnn (21), and Shane (16). His parents, Mark and Karen Johnson, live on a farm north of Cleghorn, Iowa. Bobby and Jenna live on a farm five miles south of Bobby's home place. Bobby farms with his dad and is known for his hard work, humble attitude, and heart for serving people and God. He is also a volunteer firefighter for the Meriden Cleghorn fire department. On July 19, 2010 he was airlifted to Mercy Medical Center for a suspected brain tumor and was later diagnosed with a rare form of brain cancer, Oligoastrocytoma Stage IV. He underwent surgery on July 21 to remove most of the tumor and is now going to be treated through Mayo beginning August 23, 2010. To help with the financial strain, Jerry has committed that if we raise $1,000 he will shave off his mustache which he has had since he was 17. His daughters have never seen him without it and he wouldn't shave it even for a graduation or as a wedding gift for any of them. He also said if we are able to raise $3,000 he will shave his head too. With the support of our charitable customers, friends, and family we believe we can meet his challenge. So let's see

Jerry Cueball for Cancer!!!

Checks can be made out to Leashes & Leads with Bobby Fundraiser in the memo- 100% of checks and cash will be put into a bank account at Associated Bank to offset the costs of his cancer treatment.

You can read more on Bobby's story at

<http://www.caringbridge.org/visit/bobbyjohnson2010/guestbook>